

In 2013, the Commission published the Report on its Fourth Programme of Law Reform \(LRC 110-2013\). The Fourth Programme was prepared by the Commission following broad public consultation and discussion, during which the Commission received 68 written submissions and held discussions with NGOs, representative groups, Government Departments and the Oireachtas Joint Committee on Justice, Equality and Defence. Following this consultation process, in accordance with the 1975 Act the Fourth Programme of Law Reform was approved by the Government on 8 October 2013. The Fourth Programme contains 11 projects:

1. Corporate offences and regulatory enforcement;
2. Disclosure and discovery in criminal cases;
3. Sexual offences involving children;
4. Contempt of court and other offences and torts involving the administration of justice;
5. Suspended sentences;
6. Crime affecting personal safety, privacy and reputation, including cyber-bullying;
7. Aspects of succession law;
8. Compulsory acquisition of land;
9. Landlord and tenant law for residential tenancies;
10. Domestic implementation of international obligations;
11. Codification/Consolidation/Simplification of the Law.