

DUBLIN CASTLE,

May 5, 1834.

WHEREAS it has been represented to the Lord Lieutenant, that on the Night of Thursday, the 23d of January last, a Party of armed Men assembled near Cashel, in the Parish of Culduff, County Donegal, and forcibly entered the House of John M'Dermott, and levelled one of his Chimnies; and having broken into the House of Robert Wallace, robbed him of a Gun; and that they then proceeded to the House of James Long, which they robbed of a yeomanry Gun:

His Excellency, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the Perpetrators of these Outrages, is pleased hereby to offer a Reward of

to any Person or Persons (except the Person or Persons who were principals therein,) who shall, within Six Months from the date hereof, give such Information as shall lead to the apprehension and conviction of all, or any of the Persons concerned therein.

By His Excellency's Command,

WM. GOSSET.
