
DUBLIN CASTLE,

4th June, 1832.

WHEREAS it has been represented to the Lord Lieutenant, that on the Morning of Monday, the 30th of April last, three armed Men, attacked the House of Michael M'Evoy, near Stradbally, in the Queen's County, one of whom fired at, and severely wounded him in the knee.

His Excellency, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Perpetrators of this Outrage, is pleased hereby to offer a Reward of

to any Person or Persons (except the Person who actually fired the Shot,) who shall, within Six Months from the date hereof, give such Information as shall lead to the apprehension and conviction of all, or any of the Persons concerned in this daring Outrage.

By His Excellency's Command,

WM. GOSSET.
