

By the Lord Lieutenant General and General
Governor of Ireland,

A PROCLAMATION.

WELLESLEY.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last Session of Parliament, "to prevent the further Circulation of Tokens issued by the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, for the convenience of the Public, and for defraying the Expense of exchanging such Tokens," it is enacted, That from and after the Fifth day of January, One thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, the said Tokens shall no longer pass or circulate, or be received in Payment or Exchange, or otherwise howsoever, nor shall the said Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, from and after the said Fifth day of January, One thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, be in any manner liable, or compellable to pay the value of any such Tokens or Token to the Holder thereof.

And whereas in order to enable His Majesty's Subjects in Ireland more easily to exchange the Bank Tokens described in the said Act, for the Silver Coin of the Realm, We have thought fit to direct that certain days should be appointed in each of the principal Towns of the Provinces in Ireland, on which persons bringing in the Bank Tokens to the Officers duly appointed to receive the same, may receive in Exchange the Silver Coin of the Realm.

And whereas Directions have been given for carrying the said Arrangements into effect in the Provinces of Ulster and Connaught, and in the Counties of Longford, Louth, Westmeath, King's County, Kerry, and Part of the Counties of Tipperary, Cork, and Clare, it has appeared to Us advisable that the same should next be carried into effect in the Counties of Limerick, Clare, Waterford, Part of Tipperary, of Wexford, and of the King's County: We do hereby nominate and appoint the Nineteenth day of November instant, as the day on which, and from thence until the Thirtieth day of November then next ensuing, as the period in the Counties of Wexford and Waterford; the Twenty-second day of November instant, as the day on which, and from thence until the Sixteenth day of December, then next ensuing, as the Period in the County of Limerick; the Fifth day of December next, as the day on which, and from thence until the Sixteenth day of December, then next ensuing, as the Period in the County of Clare; the Twenty-eighth day of November instant, as the day on which, and from thence until the Fourteenth day of December, then next ensuing, as the Period in the County of Tipperary; the Third day of December next, as the day on which, and from thence until the Fourteenth day of December, then next ensuing, as the Period in the King's County; during which any person or persons may attend and deliver to the Officers appointed to exchange the same, at the under-mentioned Places in the said Counties respectively, any Silver Tokens of the Bank of Ireland as aforesaid, and may receive in lieu thereof Silver Coin of the Realm, at the nominal value of the said Tokens and Coin respectively.

Given at His Majesty's Castle of Dublin, the 5th day of November 1825.

By His Excellency's Command,
HENRY GOULBURN.
