

DUBLIN CASTLE,

May 26, 1835.

WHEREAS it has been represented to the Lord Lieutenant, that between Tanderagee and Portadown, in the County of Armagh, on the 12th and 14th instant, a Mob of Men, calling themselves "Tommy Downshire's Men," made a great affray, and beat off Mr. Richmond, the Surveyor, who was there Professionally employed by the Agent of the Count De Salis, to lay out a Bog in lots for the purpose of being let:

His Excellency, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the Perpetrators of this Outrage, is pleased hereby to offer a Reward of

to any Person or Persons, who shall, within Six Months from the date hereof, give such Information as shall lead to the apprehension and conviction of all or any of the Persons concerned therein.

By His Excellency's Command,

WM. GOSSET.
