

REWARD.

WHEREAS on the Morning of Thursday
the 14th of Sept. inst. when Capt. I. M.
HILL was returning to his house at Clantilew

in the County of Armagh, and when within sixty yards of his said house, a party of men feloniously fired several shots at the said Captain Hill, with intent to Murder him.

Now We, whose Names are undersigned, holding in abhorrence such a shameful and atrocious outrage, do hereby offer a Reward of Five Hundred Pounds

to any person or persons who will, within twelve calendar months from the date hereof, discover and prosecute to conviction, the persons concerned in said Outrage. And We do hereby offer a Reward of

One Hundred Pounds

to any person or persons who will give such private information as will lead to the conviction of said persons, and the private Informer's Name shall be kept secret, if required.

And if any person concerned in said Outrage will become Informer, he will not only be paid said Reward, but an application will be made to Government for his Pardon.

(Here follows a List of Subscribers.)

Portadown, 16th September, 1826.

Dublin Castle, 26th September 1826.

THE Lord Lieutenant, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice ~~the~~ Persons concerned in the Outrage upon John Montgomery Hill, Esq. mentioned in the foregoing Advertisement is pleased hereby to promise His Majesty's most gracious Pardon to any one of them (excepting the Persons who actually fired at the said John Montgomery Hill, with intent to Murder him), who shall, within six months from the date hereof, discover his accomplices, so that they or any of them be convicted.

By His Excellency's Command,

HENRY GOULBURN,