
Dublin Castle, 5th August, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been represented to the Lord Lieutenant, that a Party of Persons, called Orangemen, on their return home after dining together in the vicinity of Arney-Bridge, were attacked by a large Assemblage of Persons called Ribbonmen, (who had been previously dislodged from a position which they had taken on the Mountain, between Florence-Court and Swadlinbar,) when one Man of the Orange Party was piked to death, and six others wounded, three of whom have since died.

Now We, the Lord Lieutenant, for the better apprehending, and bringing to justice the Person or Persons concerned in this barbarous Murder, are pleased hereby to offer a Reward of

TWO HUNDRED POUNDS,

to any Person or Persons (except those actually concerned in the commission of the Murder,) who shall give such information as may lead to the apprehension and conviction of the Persons concerned, not already apprehended.

By His Grace's Command,
F. LEVESON GOWER.
