

DUBLIN CASTLE,

2d September, 1829.

WHEREAS, it has been represented to the Lord Lieutenant, that on the Evening of Thursday, the 27th of August ultimo, about the Hour of Six o'Clock, a Man of the name of William Walsh, was fired at on the Lands of Angleborough, in the Barony of Coshlea, in the County of Cork, the ball entering his right breast, passing through his body, and coming out under his right shoulder; and that the life of the said William Walsh is in consequence despaired of,

His Grace, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the above-named daring Outrage, is pleased hereby to offer a Reward of

ONE HUNDRED POUNDS,

to any Person or Persons (except the Person who actually fired the shot) who shall, within Six Months from the date hereof, give such information as shall lead to the apprehension and conviction of any, or all of the Perpetrators of the above-mentioned Outrage.

By His Grace's Command,
F. LEVESON GOWER.