

---

DUBLIN CASTLE,

29th June 1832.

WHEREAS it has been represented to the Lord Lieutenant, that on the Night of Monday, the 4th of June instant, a Man named Arthur Heney, was waylaid on his way home from the Fair of Belaghy, at a place about four Miles from the Town of Portglenone, in the County of Londonderry, and so severely beaten, that he has since died.

His Excellency, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in this Murder, is pleased hereby to offer a Reward of

ONE HUNDRED POUNDS

to any Person or Persons, (except the actual Perpetrators of this Outrage,) who shall, within Six Months from the date hereof, give such Information as shall lead to the apprehension and conviction of all or any of the Persons who committed this daring Murder.

By His Excellency's Command,

WM. GOSSET.