

THREE HUNDRED POUNDS REWARD.

WHEREAS on the Evening of Wednesday the 13th of July last, as Charles Feris, (a most respectable quiet and industrious Farmer), accompanied by his Son and Daughter, were returning from the Turf Bog, where they had been working all day, to their habitation in Corgary, in the Estate of Arthur Innis, Esq. of Dromantine, in the County of Down, they were attacked and pelted with Stones, by some person or persons who lay concealed near the side of the road, in the Townland of Knockanarney, and immediately after two shots were fired from a Fort, at some distance from the road, on the opposite side, the second of which struck the said Charles Feris in the leg, and shattered the bone in so terrible a manner that amputation became necessary, and he now lies in a very dangerous state. Since dead.

Now, in order to bring the Perpetrator or Perpetrators of so horrid an Outrage to condign Punishment, We, the undersigned, promise to pay, in proportion to the sums affixed to our Names, a Reward of THREE HUNDRED POUNDS, to any person or persons who will prosecute the Offender or Offenders to conviction.

☞ The original List of Subscribers' Names lies with Mr. Waring, of Newry.

Dublin Castle, 25th August 1825.

HIS Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the person or persons concerned in the Outrage on Charles Feris, who is since dead, as mentioned in the foregoing Advertisement, is hereby pleased to promise His Majesty's most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired the Shot by which the deceased was wounded), who shall within Six Months from the date hereof, discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted.

By His Excellency's Command,
HENRY GOULBURN.
