

DUBLIN CASTLE,

January 22, 1834.

WHEREAS it has been represented to the Lord Lieutenant, that on the Night of the 23d of December, 1833, William Carroll, of Newport, was waylaid on his return from the Limerick Market, and so dreadfully beaten, that he died on the following day :

His Excellency, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the Perpetrators of this Murder, is pleased hereby to offer a Reward of

to any Person or Persons, who shall, within Six Months from the date hereof, give such Information as shall lead to the apprehension and conviction of all, or any of the Persons concerned therein.

By His Excellency's Command,

WM. GOSSET.
