

DUBLIN CASTLE,

25th September, 1860.

WHEREAS it has been represented to the Lord Lieutenant, that between the hours of Eleven and Twelve o'Clock, on Sunday, the 23rd day of September, 1860, Richard Dyas, Esq., Justice of the Peace, when proceeding to church in his carriage, with his family, was waylaid by two persons in female attire, and with their faces blackened, one of whom fired a blunderbuss at him, at Grennanstown, in the County of Meath.

His Excellency, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the perpetrators of this Outrage, is pleased hereby to offer a reward of

to any person or persons who shall, within six months from the date hereof, give such information as shall lead to the Arrest of the person or persons who committed the same.

By His Excellency's Command,

EDWARD CARDWELL.

The above Reward will be paid, on Conviction, by E. J. Banon, Esq., the Resident Magistrate at Trim, to those who may become entitled to it under the conditions of this Proclamation.
