By the Lord Lieutenant and Council of Ireland,

A PROCLAMATION.

1....

TALBOT,

W HEREAS it appears by Examinations on on Oath, that on the N' on Oath, that on the Night of Monday the Sixteenth Day of April last, Patrick Beaghan, a^han, of Killcommon, in the King's County, and Thomas Keegan, Michael Keegan, James Cufack, Nicholas Egan, and John Ryan, all of Galrus, in the faid County, with feveral other Perfons, fome of whom are at prefent unknown, did wilfully, wickedly, and maliciously fet on Fire the House of Thomas Murphy, of Galrus aforefaid, Labourer, and did then and there barbaroufly and inhumanly Murder the faid Thomas Murphy, and his Mother and Siller, who inhabited the faid Houfe.

Now We the Lord Lieutenant and Council, being determined as far as in Us lies, to bring the Perfons concerned in the faid most barbarous and moft inhuman Murders and Outrage to fpeedy and condign Punishment, do hereby publish and declare, that if any Perfon or Perfons shall, within Six Calendar Months next after the Date hereof, discover any of the before named Person or Perfons, fo as that he or they shall be apprehended and committed to Prifon for the faid Offences. fuch Perfon or Perfons shall receive as a Reward the Sum of FIFTY POUNDS for the Difcovery as aforefaid of the faid Patrick Beaghan, and TWENTY POUNDS for the like Discovery of ach and every of the other before named Perfons.

And We do hereby firictly charge and command all Juffices of the Peace, Mayore, Sheriffs, Bailiffs, and all other His Majefty's loving Subjects, to ule their utmolt diligence in apprehending the faid Offenders, and every of them.

Given at the Council Chamber in Dublin, the 12th Day of May, 1821.

John G. Dublin. Charles Cashel. Erne. Frankfort De Montmorency. Norbury. D. Baird. G. Knox, Wm. McMahon, Wm. Saurin.

GOD fave the KING.