

DUBLIN CASTLE,

27th March 1832.

WHEREAS it has been represented to the Lord Lieutenant, that on Tuesday, the 28th of February last, as Timothy Kelly was returning home from the Shannon, to the Parish of St. John's, in the Barony of Athlone, in the County of Roscommon, he was met by Sub-Constable Walsh, who demanded a Gun which Kelly held in his hand ; and that on his refusing to deliver it up, the said Sub-Constable Walsh fired at, and severely wounded the said Timothy Kelly ; and that Walsh has since absconded.

His Excellency, for the better apprehending and bringing to trial, the said Sub-Constable Walsh, is pleased hereby to offer a Reward of to any Person or Persons who shall apprehend, and bring the said Walsh to any Police Station.

By His Excellency's Command,

WM. GOSSET.
