

Dublin Castle, 5th September 1823.

THE Lord Lieutenant for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the Murder of Denis Donoghue, of Knockcornavoker, in the County of Tipperary; also the Persons concerned in the Murder of William Green, at Ballyglass, in said County; and the Persons concerned in the attempt to Murder John Stewart, Esq. at Carraghmore, in said County: is pleased hereby to offer a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS for the Discovery and Conviction of the said Murderers, in each separate Case; and also for the attempt at Murder; and also to promise His Majesty's Pardon to any of the Persons concerned in the said Murders, excepting the Persons who actually committed the same, or to any of the Persons concerned in the attempt at Murder; besides the Reward of Fifty Pounds in each Case above mentioned, who shall within Six Months from this Date discover their Accomplices so as that they, or any of them, be convicted of said Murders or attempt at Murder.

By His Excellency's Command,

HENRY GOULBURN.
