

WHEREAS on Sunday the 14th instant, my Dwelling-house at Ballinamona, was violently entered between the hours of nine and ten o'clock in the afternoon, by a party of armed men, who, after robbing and plundering my concerns, savagely and inhumanly Murdered my beloved Brother Edmond Murphy, of Grange, Esq.—Now, I hereby offer to pay the sum of Two Hundred Pounds sterling to any person or persons who shall, within six calendar months from the date hereof, give to me, or to any of the Magistrates of the county of Tipperary, such public or private information as may lead to the conviction of all or any of the persons engaged in said Robbery and Murder. And I hereby promise to use my best endeavours to obtain His Majesty's full pardon for any person or persons who shall give such information, always excepting the person who fired the shot that deprived my Brother of life.—Dated at Ballinamona, near Cashel, this 16th day of May 1826.

Signed, WILLIAM MURPHY.

WE, the Undersigned, holding in abhorrence the above barbarous and wanton Murder, bind ourselves to pay the entire amount of the sums annexed to our names, to any person or persons who shall, within six calendar months from the date hereof, either prosecute to conviction the person who fired the shot by which Mr. Edmond Murphy lost his life, or who shall give such private information as may lead to his discovery and conviction; or We hereby promise to pay one half the sums subscribed by us for such public or private information as may produce the conviction of any others of the persons engaged in such Outrage.—Dated at Ballinamona, near Cashel, this 16th day of May 1826.

(Here follows a List of Subscribers.)

Dublin Castle, 22d May 1826.

THE Lord Lieutenant for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the Murder committed upon Mr. Edmond Murphy, mentioned in the foregoing Advertisement, is pleased hereby to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (excepting the Person who fired the shot, whereby the said Edmond Murphy was killed), who shall within Six Months from the date hereof, discover his accomplices, so as that they, or any of them be convicted.

Given at His Majesty's Castle of Dublin, the 22d day of May 1826.

By His Excellency's Command,
W. GREGORY.
