

DUBLIN CASTLE,

February 24, 1835.

WHEREAS it has been represented to the Lords Justices, that on the Night of the 20th instant, a range of Offices, the Property of Mr. Thomas Fay, near Dunlavan, in the County Wicklow, was maliciously set on fire, and totally consumed :

Their Excellencies, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the Perpetrators of this Outrage, are pleased hereby to offer a Reward of

to any Person or Persons, (except the Person or Persons who actually set fire to the Premises) who shall, within Six Months from the date hereof, give such Information as shall lead to the apprehension and conviction of all, or any of the Persons concerned therein.

By Their Excellencies' Command,
WM. GOSSET.
