

By the Lord Lieutenant, General and General Governor of Ireland.

WELLESLEY.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last Session of Parliament, "to prevent the further Circulation of Tokens issued by the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, for the convenience of the Public, and for defraying the Expense of exchanging such Tokens," it is enacted, That from and after the Fifth day of January, One thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, the said Tokens shall no longer pass or circulate, or be received in Payment or Exchange, or otherwise howsoever, nor shall the said Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, from and after the said Fifth day of January, One thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, be in any manner liable, or compellable to pay the value of any such Tokens or Token to the Holder thereof.

And whereas in order to enable His Majesty's Subjects in Ireland more easily to exchange the Bank Tokens described in the said Act, for the Silver Coin of the Realm, We have thought fit to direct that certain days should be appointed in each of the principal Towns of the Provinces in Ireland, on which persons bringing in the Bank Tokens to the Officers duly appointed to receive the same, may receive in Exchange the Silver Coin of the Realm.

And whereas it has appeared to Us advisable that the said Arrangements should first be carried into effect in the Province of Ulster and the County of Sligo, We do hereby name and appoint the Eighth day of September next ensuing, as the day on which, and from thence until the Eighteenth day of September, then next ensuing, as the period during which any person or persons may attend and deliver to the Officer appointed to exchange the same, at the under-mentioned Places, any Silver Tokens of the Bank of Ireland as aforesaid, and may receive in lieu thereof Silver Coin of the Realm, at the nominal value of the said Tokens and Coin respectively.

Given at His Majesty's Castle of Dublin, the 23d day of August 1825.

By His Excellency's Command,
HENRY GOULBURN.
