WE, the Commissioners acting in execution of an Act made and passed in the Fifth and Sixth Years of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled, "An Act to regulate the Irish Fisheries," and the several Acts since passed amending the same, having taken the necessary preliminary steps for the purpose, in pursuance of the powers and authorities in us vested in that behalf by said Acts, or some or one of them, do hereby decide that the respective periods authorized and directed by the said Acts, or any of them, as the Close Time for Fish of the Salmon kind, shall cease within the District No. 14, heretofore defined and known as the Letterkenny District, situate within the County of Donegal, or any part thereof.

And we, the said Commissioners, do hereby further decide, that the Close Time for Salmon, or Fish of the Salmon kind, in any Estuary, or on the Sea Coast, or in the Tideway of any River, or the part thereof where the Tide ebbs and flows, and within one mile in said Rivers above said Tideway, to be kept and observed, shall from henceforth be between the 20th day of August in each year, and the 31st day of December in the same year, both said days inclusive.

And we, the said Commissioners, do hereby further decide, that the Close Time for Salmon, and Fish of the Salmon kind, in the Upper or Freshwater portion of any River or Stream within said District, to be kept and observed, shall from henceforth be between the 20th day of August in each year, and the last day of February in the year following, both the said days inclusive; save that in the Upper or Freshwater portion of any of the said Rivers or Streams, Salmon, or Fish of the Salmon kind, may be taken by the Rod and Line only, between the 19th day of August and 29th day of September in any year.

R. GRIFFITH,
J. RADCLIFF,

Commissioners of Public Works and Fisheries in Ireland.

WM. J. FFENNELL,
One of the Inspecting Commissioners of Fisheries in Ireland.

Dated this 2nd day of September, in the year of our Lord, 1857.
