

NOTICE.

DUBLIN CASTLE,

16th December, 1859.

THE Lord Lieutenant having received a representation of the inconvenience sustained by the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Castletowndelvin, in the County of Westmeath, from the frequent misdirection of Letters intended for them to "Castletown," and the consequent transmission thereof to other places bearing that name, his Excellency has been pleased to direct that on and after the 1st day of January next, the said Town of Castletowndelvin shall be called and known by the name of "Delvin," and that the said change of name shall be notified to and observed by all Public Departments.
