

OFFICE OF ARMS,

May 20, 1835,

THE King has been graciously pleased to give and grant to Henry Bevan Wilson, of Belville House, in the County of Meath, Esq., his royal licence and authority that he and his issue may take the name and arms of Slator, in compliance with the desire, and out of respect to the memory of William Henry Slator, late of White-hill House, in the County of Longford, Esq., deceased, provided His Majesty's royal concession and declaration be recorded in the Office of Ulster, King of Arms of all Ireland, to the end that the Officers of Arms there, and all others upon occasion may take full notice, and have knowledge thereof.

Now, this is to notify that the said royal concession and declaration has been duly recorded in my Office accordingly.

W. BETHAM, Ulster.
